

Baltimore Comic-Con Announces 2016 Costume Contest Winners

BALTIMORE, MARYLAND - September 5, 2016 - The Baltimore Comic-Con is happy to announce the winners of our 8th Annual Costume Contest. The contest took place this past Saturday, September 3, 2016 for both amateur and professional adults, and Sunday, September 4, 2016 for kids. Visually stunning costumes ranged from classic superheroes to video game and movie characters and beyond, and our contest has proven to be one of the most anticipated events at the show.

This year's costume contest separated amateur adults and craftsmen from professional adults, and held a separate contest for amateur kids as well.

The grand prize winner for Best Overall Costume in the professional category, and the recipient of the $1,000 cash prize, was Casey Sanders for her "Tiny Tina" costume.

The grand prize winner for Best Overall Costume in the craftsmen category, and the recipient of the $500 cash prize, was Candice Miller for her "Ahsoka Tano" costume.

The grand prize winner for Best in Show for kids, and the recipient of the $100 cash prize, was Jayden for his "Tracer" costume.

Special thanks go to everyone who entered the contest and showed their support, as well as to our sponsor, Toynk.com and Master of Ceremonies, comedian Joe Bronzi!
